

Change of publication date is due to recent disruptions in financial markets and the upcoming transfer of part of the assets from Open Pension Funds (OFE) to ZUS. The Treasury Securities supply plan for February will be subject to current market situation and will take into account the new outstanding amounts of Treasury bonds after the aforementioned transfer from OFE to ZUS.